Dear Mr. Robinson:

Thank you for inviting CIA Director William J. Casey to speak to the Yale Political Union in New Haven sometime this fall.

Mr. Casey has asked me to convey his regrets. His calendar is so full that he is unable to make further commitments at this time.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Yale Political Union is celebrating its 50th Anniversary in 1984. Our spring term was a great success, and we would be honored if you would help us make the fall term equally enlightening.

I am privileged to invite you to speak on a topic of your choice. Should you accept, we will be happy to discuss the details of the topic with you. We would like to schedule this event for sometime between mid-September and the third week of December, 1984.

The Union, founded by Dean Acheson and Harvey Bundy in 1934, is today the largest student organization at Yale. Since its establishment, it has strived to provide a national forum for non-partisan discussion of political issues, and in celebrating our 50th Anniversary, we reaffirm our commitment to this goal. During the spring, George Will, William F. Buckley, George McGovern, and Caspar Weinberger were among those who helped us mark this occasion. We hope you will join us too.

As is our custom, we will be glad to reimburse your travel expenses. Should you wish to stay the night in New Haven, we would be delighted to serve as your hosts. I look forward to hearing from you and hope we will have the pleasure of welcoming you to Yale in the fall.

Sincerely,

Eric Robinson, President
